

Faris Al-Dahleh

Mobile & Web Developer

I carry both technical and academic knowledge. I kept myself busy learning and working with new technologies. Through the years, I've acquired the ability to solve problems and adapt to changes. Performance and usability are priorities for me, I always seek to write suitable code for both humans and computers. As an innovative individual, I'm able to dive into new challenges and to explore new ideas. I'm the kind of person who enjoys sharing my knowledge and experience with others.
